

Market and portfolio review

The month of October saw a degree of weakness in equity markets given the continued resurgence of the coronavirus Covid-19 and renewed political concerns over the US election in particular. There has been encouraging economic news, as in China where the economy is expected to show modest growth of some 2% for 2020 as a whole and in the US where output was up by 7.4% in the third quarter on the previous one, if still 4.3% below the level at the start of the year. Housing markets have been strong, helped by lower interest rates and by government incentives. These will help to offset the renewed restrictions in countries such as France, Germany, Spain and England given the coronavirus, which will further restrain the economic recovery. Global debt levels continue to rise and the IMF has estimated that governments have increased spending or cut taxes by $11.7trn this year, equivalent to 12% of output. For now the debt is affordable given low interest rates and authorities have shown a greater commitment than at the time of the financial crisis, although in the US Democrats and Republicans failed to agree on a further relief plan ahead of the presidential election on 3rd November. which was expected to be quite close. China has meanwhile prepared its next five-year plan with a focus on the domestic market as well as technological self-reliance.

For the portfolio the total return in October was -1.5%. Baillie Gifford Pacific was the largest contributor to performance at +0.16%, with Fidelity Europe ex UK Index the largest detractor at -0.26%.

Investment objective

The Growth portfolio has assumed returns of 7-9% p.a. net of fees over a rolling three-year period. The investment manager has discretion to weight the portfolio towards any of the asset classes comprising bonds, equities, alternatives and cash provided that any such investment is compatible with the objectives.

The OCF represents the average charge of funds in which the portfolio is invested; it is an indicative figure (excluding transaction and ancillary costs which are 0.28% and 0.05% respectively) calculated at each quarter re-balancing, as is the portfolio yield. As well as the regular quarterly re-balance we may re-position the portfolios on an ad hoc basis and at each occasion we assess the risk profile.

Historical performance (as of 31st October 2020)

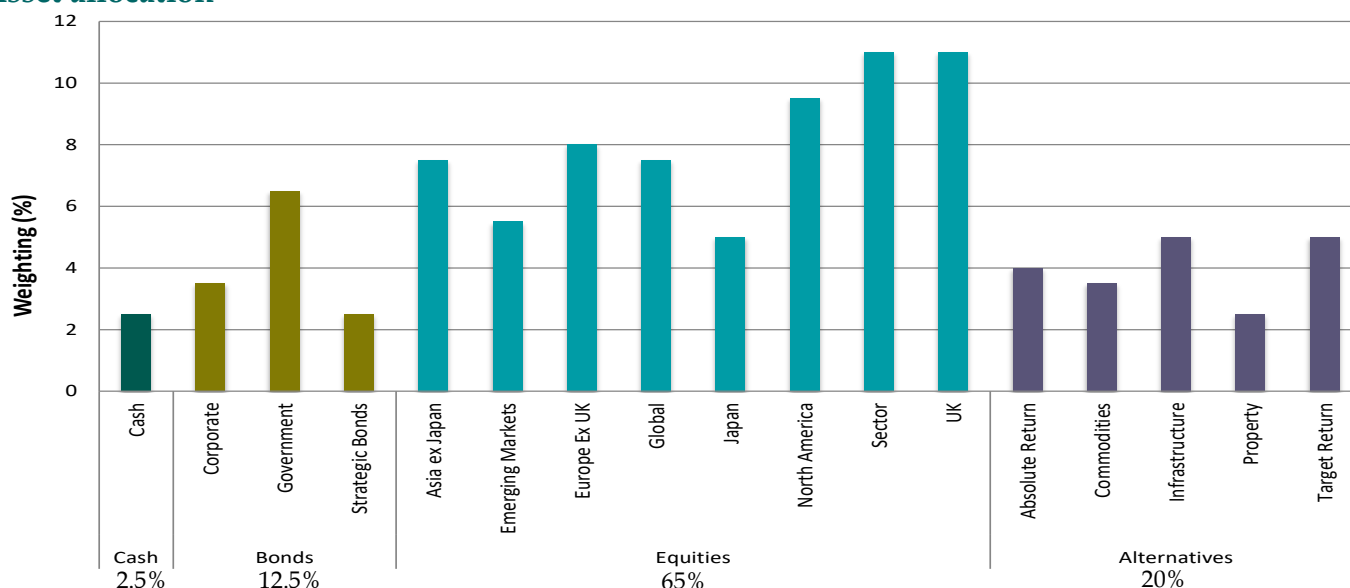

Rolling	1 mth	3 mth	1 yr	3 yr	From inception
VAM Growth	-1.5%	+1.0%	-1.6%	+3.7%	+82.1%

VAM Growth	+16.0%	+11.6%	-6.5%	+16.3%	-5.3%

Please note that past performance is no guarantee of future returns and that capital in the portfolio is at risk of loss. The figures are based on a model and may vary between platforms if holdings differ due to availability. Performance is shown net of the OCF, transaction and ancillary costs and the investment management fee (deducted monthly) but gross of platform (and adviser) fees; it is calculated using Financial Express with Bloomberg for contribution analysis and assumes no frictional dealing costs nor any delay during model rebalancing. The assumed return is set at 8% p.a. compounded monthly.
